

Student Expectations for Second Semester

Expectation for Learning: Students are to be on time to all classes, including advisement.

Student Accountability for Actions: Consequences for tardies will be assigned as outlined in the student handbook (pg 23). For students who have a pattern of tardy behavior, additional consequences may be enforced:

- Five tardies to any one class, including advisement – conference with administrator or designee. Warnings regarding prom, parking, and extracurricular activities.
- Seven tardies to any one class, including advisement – loss of prom, parking, and attendance at all extracurricular events; conference with coach and/or club sponsor to determine whether the privilege to participate in extracurricular activity will be continued.

Note: A student who checks in at the attendance office without an excused note will also be counted as tardy.

Expectation for Learning: Students are to be present in class each day – no skipping or AWOL.

Student Accountability for Actions: Consequences for skipping class will be assigned as outlined in the student handbook (pg. 22). For students who have a pattern of skipping class, additional consequences may be enforced:

- Two incidents of skipping class (cumulative for all classes) - conference with administrator or designee. Warnings regarding prom, parking, and extracurricular activities.
- Three incidents of skipping class (cumulative for all classes) - loss of prom, parking, and attendance at all extracurricular events; conference with coach and/or club sponsor to determine whether the privilege to participate in extracurricular activity will be continued.

Expectation for Learning: Students are not to eat food or drink beverages in classrooms – the only exception is bottled water.

Student Accountability for Actions: Food/drink will be confiscated.

Expectation: Students are not to wear head coverings inside the school building.

Student Accountability for Actions: Head covering will be confiscated.

Expectation: Students are not to use or display any of the following electronic devices during school hours: cell phones, I-Pods, MP3 players, CD players, headphones, etc.

Student Accountability for Actions: Electronic device will be confiscated and returned only to parent/guardian.
